The Judges have completed the May 2022 civil jury term. Two civil cases reached verdicts and the summaries are as follows:

ANDREA BRYANT, Individually and ANDREA BRYANT, as parent of B.S., a minor v. RICHARD LENGEMAN, CEDAR REALTY TRUST PARTNERSHIP and CEDAR-CAMP HILL, LLC (2020 CV 00530 MM)

Judge: The Honorable John J. McNally, III

Counsel for Plaintiff: Robert F. Claraval, Esquire

Counsel for Defendants: Kevin D. Rauch, Esquire for Defendant Lengeman; and Maureen A. Jordan, Esquire and Rebecca M. Cantor, Esquire for the Cedar Defendants

Trial dates: May 16-19, 2022

Background: This action arose from an accident on July 21, 2018, at the Camp Hill Giant grocery store when Defendant Richard Lengeman pulled his vehicle out of a handicapped parking spot and struck a grocery cart being pushed by Plaintiff Andrea Bryant (Mother). Mother's three-year-old Child was in the cart when it was struck, knocking them both to the pavement. The cart was located in a non-curbed, pedestrian-marked island. The accident was videotaped by a surveillance camera.

Plaintiff Mother, and Mother on behalf of the Child, filed claims of negligence and negligent infliction of emotional distress against the driver Lengeman. Plaintiffs also asserted negligent design of the pedestrian crossing against the property owners, the Cedar Defendants, for failing to curb the island adjacent to the handicapped parking space, which they claim would have prevented the driver from pulling forward through the pedestrian-marked space.

The Child suffered a non-displaced occipital bone fracture, concussion, short-term stuttering and psychological issues. Mother suffered injuries to her elbow and back, which her treating physician described as chronic. Mother also claimed psychological injuries including PTSD. In addition to non-economic damages, Mother also sought future lost earnings. Mother, who was thirty-one years old at the time of the accident, is an elementary school special education teacher and returned to her job full-time, without limitations. She claimed she would have to retire earlier than planned due to her chronic psychological injuries.

With regard to the Child, Defendant Lengeman admitted negligence and that he was the factual cause of some harm to her. He also admitted negligence as to Mother but not factual cause.

The Cedar Defendants denied negligence and presented expert witnesses who testified that the Cedar Defendants complied with applicable regulations in creating and maintaining the pedestrian island and that the handicapped parking spaces and crosswalks were properly designed pursuant to a design approved by the local municipality. The crosswalk and handicap parking spaces were constructed according to the approved plan and that no code, standard, or other regulation required curbs at the subject location.

Pre-Trial and Pre-Verdict Rulings: The most notable orders/decisions issued by the Court were that: (1) Defendants were permitted to introduce evidence that Plaintiffs are were not seeking past loss of income, past medical expenses and future medical expenses although the Jury was instructed that it could consider medical services received by each Plaintiff in reaching its verdict on non-economic damages; (2) Defendants were precluded from making any mention of the amount of past medical expenses; (3) Plaintiff Mother was permitted to seek future lost wages without presenting expert testimony to support her PTSD claim; (4) the Cedar Defendants were permitted to present evidence that they complied with applicable codes, although the Jury was instructed that code compliance did not prevent the Jury from finding negligence; and (5) the Cedar Defendants were permitted to present evidence of a lack of prior incidents.

Verdict: As noted, the jury was directed to find Defendant Lengeman negligent and that his negligence was the factual cause of harm to the Child. The jury further found that Defendant Lengeman was also the factual cause of harm to Mother. The jury found that the Cedar Defendants were not negligent.

As against Defendant Lengeman, the jury awarded the Child damages of $100,000, itemized as $70,000 for past pain and suffering, $5,000 for future pain and suffering, $5,000 for embarrassment and humiliation, and $20,000 for loss of enjoyment of life's pleasures. The jury awarded Mother damages of $40,000, itemized as $30,000 for past pain and suffering, $5,000 for embarrassment and humiliation, $5,000 for loss of enjoyment of life's pleasures, and $0 for future pain and suffering, and future loss of income, respectively.

RANDALL SHUPP v. CHARLES GAUMER and PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION and PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE COMMISSION (2018 CV 06212 CV)

Judge: The Honorable Andrew H. Dowling

Counsel for Plaintiff: Amanda J. Davidson, Esquire

Counsel for Defendants: Douglas C. Hart, Esquire

Trial dates: May 16-19, 2022

Background: A motor vehicle accident on the Pennsylvania Turnpike in Dauphin County on February 13, 2018. The Turnpike was conducting a mobile pothole repair in the left lane. A mobile pothole repair operation is such that potholes are repaired relatively quickly and the operation continues to move forward in a mobile scenario instead of shutting down the lane for some period of time. The operation involves a large truck with a large arrow warning drivers with repair trucks actually fixing the potholes in front of this large warning truck. In addition, the Turnpike has trucks a mile before and a half mile before situated on the right berm warning drivers and advising them that the left lane is closed ahead. The left berm on the Turnpike is too narrow to place any warning trucks.

The Plaintiff was traveling in the left lane and claimed that a car in front of him veered to the right lane right before the large warning truck with an arrow, resulting him running into the rear of the large warning truck. An employee in the large truck with a warning arrow testified he saw the Plaintiff's vehicle some significant distance away and that he saw no car in between.

During the trial, a jury view occurred of the large warning truck. The truck was brought to the parking lot at the Courthouse.

Plaintiff's Experts:

Plaintiff's liability expert was John Nawn, a civil engineer, who opined that the large truck with the arrow should have straddled the left and right lanes, that there should have been some warning truck on the left berm and that the Turnpike should have closed the left lane instead of having a mobile operation.

Plaintiff's medical expert was Thomas Graham, M.D., who opined that Plaintiff suffered a concussion, post-concussion syndrome and aggravation of pre-existing tremors.

Defendants' Experts:

Defendant's liability expert was Glenn Rowe, P.E., and medical expert Thomas Graham, M.D.

Verdict: The verdict slip had questions on negligence, factual cause, comparative negligence and damages. The jury answered question one: NO as to the Defendant's negligence.

IN-HOUSE ATTORNEY: PrimeCare Medical Inc. is looking to hire an In-House Attorney to join our growing in-house legal and risk management department. Junior attorneys looking to transition to an in-house legal department will also be considered for this position. This position will support senior counsel and assist on multiple aspects of the business including litigation, risk management, patient privacy and compliance matters.
