This CLE is open to all interested attorneys but is required for attorneys interested in mediating employment discrimination complaints for the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission as part of their pro bono service. The training will lay out the basics of employment discrimination under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act including who is covered under the Act, the types of employment actions covered under the Act, and the theories of proving unlawful discrimination. The training will also cover some of the special concerns that arise during PHRC mediations such as privilege and working with the unrepresented.

Pursuant to Continuing Legal Education Rules, this program has been approved by the PA CLE Board for 3 substantive credits for all attendees who participate in the complete program.

Materials will be emailed to registrants by Wednesday, September 23, 2015. You may also find them on our website under the on-line events calendar.

As always, this program will include lunch for all attendees who have made timely reservations. Lunch cannot be guaranteed for late registrants.

The cost of the program will be waived for any attorney willing to assist with a Pro-Bono mediation for the PA Human Relations Commission. Otherwise, the cost of the program is $45 for members and $60 for non-members.

Registration deadline is Thursday, September 17, 2015. Cancellations must be received by Monday, September 21, 2015.

Space is limited, so please register early.
